1. Onboarding Checklist

Complete the following within the first month of employment.

- 1.1 Submit KYC documents (ID, address proof, bank details) to HR within five working days.
- 1.2 Collect the company laptop, access card and phone from IT.
- 1.3 Activate NimbusHR, email and code repository accounts.
- 1.4 Meet your onboarding buddy and complete the product tour.
- 1.5 Sign the employee policy acknowledgement in NimbusHR.
- 1.6 Attend the probation briefing with HR.
- 1.7 Complete the security awareness e-module within the first month.

2. Probation

Every employee serves a probation period of six months from the joining date.

- 2.1 A progress review happens at the end of month four; it is a feedback checkpoint, not a decision.
- 2.2 The confirmation decision is taken at the end of month six, jointly by the manager and HR.
- 2.3 Written confirmation is issued within 15 days of the confirmation decision.
- 2.4 Where performance gaps remain, the probation may be extended by three months, once only, with a documented improvement plan.
- 2.5 Annual leave accrues only after confirmation (see the Leave and Grievance Policy).
- 2.6 Benefits, insurance and work-from-home eligibility are defined in the sections below.

3. Notice Period

- 3.1 The standard notice period is 30 calendar days for all employees.
- 3.2 Senior Manager and above serve a notice period of 90 calendar days.
- 3.3 Up to 15 days of notice may be bought out by payment, at one day's gross pay per day waived.
- 3.4 During probation, either party may exit with 7 days' notice.
- 3.5 The full and final settlement is paid within 7 working days of the last working day and includes salary up to the last day, accrued annual leave (carry-forward portion), and reimbursement of declared business expenses.

4. Work From Home

Work from home (WFH) is an approved arrangement, not a default.

4.1 Employees may work from home up to two days per week.

4.2 Eligibility begins after three months of continuous service.

4.3 The weekly WFH request is submitted in NimbusHR before Monday of that week.

4.4 Core online hours are 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM; the employee must be reachable and cameras on for scheduled meetings.

4.5 WFH is not available during on-site client weeks or approved release weeks.

4.6 The company provides the laptop and headset; the employee provides a stable internet connection and a suitable workspace.

5. Insurance and Benefits

5.1 Group medical insurance covers the employee, spouse and two children with a yearly cover of Rs 4,00,000, plus Rs 10,000 vision and Rs 15,000 dental.

5.2 Term life insurance equals 12 times the annual salary.

5.3 Accidental death and disability cover is Rs 10,00,000.

5.4 All premiums for the above covers are paid 100% by the company.

5.5 An optional critical-illness rider is available at the employee's own cost.

5.6 Coverage begins from the first day of employment and continues for 30 days after exit.

6. Payroll and Settlement

Salary is credited by the 7th of the following month. CTC comprises basic pay, HRA, allowances and variable pay at target. TDS is deducted as applicable. Payslips are available in NimbusHR.

On exit, unused annual leave within the carry-forward limit is encashed as per Section 3.

Appendix A - Benefits FAQ

Q: When do I get health cover?

A: From the first day of employment.

Q: Can my parents be added to the medical cover?

A: Not under the standard plan; an optional parental rider is available at employee cost.

Q: Does WFH affect my benefits?

A: No, benefits are identical for office and WFH days.

Q: What happens if probation is extended?

A: The notice period stays at the standard 30 days; annual leave still accrues only after confirmation.

Q: How do I claim medical reimbursements?

A: Upload the bills to the insurance portal; claims are settled within 30 days.

Q: Is the notice buyout amount taxable?

A: Follow the finance team's settlement letter for the exact treatment.
